Improvement of the management of local hosting
VET organisations in touristic sector

About the Project

HostVet is focused on sharing best practices and developing new strategies on the management of hosting organisations, for internship programmes in tourism and cultural and creative enterprises sectors. Starting as an example from a territory like Sardinia Island, the applicant's local site, where the enterprises need to align their activities with the European approach and introduce improvement to the sector, tourism is a fundamental resource for its economy.

Project Outputs

- ❖ organisation of at least one local event for each partner, involving companies in the sector of tourism
- ❖ transnational exchange of experiences and good practices
- ❖ organization of a training session in Italy where interns will be involved
- ❖ drafting of guidelines about the planning and management of internship abroad,
- ❖ publication of guidelines as e-book and paperback
- ❖ creation of a project blog, "News from Europe" aiming to disseminate the latest trends of the sector across EU
- ❖ establishing a network to share results and best practices with other VET organisations.

HostVet will...

- ✓ create a shared training model made up of rules and procedures for the sector of tourism
- ✓ identify and share the best methodologies to support the involvement of various companies
- ✓ increase the awareness and knowledge of the ERASMUS+ program
- ✓ facilitate the involvement of companies and qualified organizations that will host vocational training students in Europe;
- ✓ share best practices on the management of sending / hospitality organizations that will involve VET learners in mobility projects.
